SECTION A – Color Photography Single Image (Non-Professionals)

1. Portrait: image of individuals or groups of individuals.
 - “A portrait is an artistic representation of a person, in which the face and its expression is predominant. The intent is to display the likeness, personality, and even the mood of the person”
2. Landscape: scenery of rural or urban views.
 - “Landscape comprises the visible features of an area of land, including physical elements such as landforms, living elements or flora and fauna, abstract elements like lightning and other weather conditions, and human elements like the built environment.”
3. Nature: images of plants or animals.
 - “The term ‘nature’ may refer to living plants and animals, geological processes, and weather. The term often refers to ‘natural environment’ or wilderness – wild animals, rocks, forest, beaches, and in general areas that have not been substantially altered by humans.”
4. Documentary: images that tell a story of an event or a situation.
 - “Documentary photography attempts to produce truthful, objective, and usually candid photographs of a particular subject, most often pictures of people doing something in their everyday lives.”
5. Still Life: images of constructed environments.
 - “A still life is a work of art depicting mostly inanimate subject matter, typically commonplace objects which may be either natural (food, flowers, plants, rocks, or shells) or man-made (drinking glasses, books, vases, jewelry, coins, pipes and so on) in an artificial setting.”
6. Experimental: abstract or manipulated and altered images.
 - “Art that is concerned with exploring new ideas and/or technology. It usually suggests a more explicit desire to extend the boundaries of the art in terms of materials or techniques.”
7. “Snapshot of America” theme: an image that conveys an idea about the American way of life.
8. “Living in Monroe County” theme: an image that conveys something unique to this county.

SECTION B – Color Photography Multiple images (Non-Professionals)

1. Thematic Photos: three or more prints depicting the same subject.
 - “A theme is an idea set forth by the work, with a motif as a recurring element which symbolizes that idea.”
2. Photo Essay: six or more prints that tell a story.
 - “A photo essay is a group of photographs that are intended to tell a story or evoke a series of emotions in the viewer. Photo essays range from purely photographic works to photographs with captions or small notes. Photo essays often address a certain issue or attempt to capture the character of places and events.”
