

MONROE COUNTY FAIR
PET SHOW 2017
Sunday, August 6th at 2:00pm

Superintendent: Alexandra Monroe 922-4054 (day) or 315-5168 (evening)

Kids & teens are invited to show off their pets at this year's fair! To enter, please read the rules below and then send in a filled out entry form which includes the liability release. For dogs, cats, and ferrets, you will also need to include proof of vaccination with your completed form.

This show is for kids and their pets only, with two age divisions: Youth are ages 7-12, and Teens are ages 13-17. In the show ring the animals must be handled by their young people only, no adult help is allowed. (You should practice ahead with your youth how to hold a leash to keep control of their pet.)

Rules & Other Information

- All animals must be on a leash (collar or harness) or remain inside a carrier/cage at all times.
- All dogs must be licensed and have current rabies, distemper, and parvovirus vaccinations.
- All cats must have current rabies and distemper vaccinations.
- All ferrets must have current rabies vaccinations.
- We want this to be a fun event for all so please understand that if a pet appears to be sick, or if it is behaving out of control or aggressively, we will require you to take the pet home.
- The top five pets in each class will be awarded placement ribbons, but all handlers will receive a recognition ribbon as well.
- $1 entry fee per class.
- Send in your entry form & fee (and vaccination records if applicable) by July 31st to the Monroe County Fair, 20 Office Park Way, Suite 131, Pittsford, NY 14534.

The Pet Show has 3 divisions:

- Beauty: we want to see your happy & healthy pet, showing off how well you care for them. For this class only, we will separate awards by species.
- Costume: let's see your creative outfits!
- Silly Tricks: have your pet show off two fun or goofy tricks on command.
